

Founded in South Africa in 2004, Conclude has established itself as a recognised market leader in electronic form technologies. Our solutions are used by major financial and government institutions, both in South Africa and abroad, reaching more than 4 million end-users on a regular basis.

Conclude is committed to the economic empowerment and social development in South Africa, and has achieved a level 3 BEE rating. Click the link on the left for details.

//